

$100 REWARD

LOST 3-ring Binder

On Sunday night October 18, 2009 this 3-ring binder was last seen at William Mitchell College of Law in Room #123, during a meeting for our non-profit organization. The contents are part of an important research project.

The binder includes a draft of materials and documents, which are entitled "Family Law Reform: Key Findings in Support of Joint Physical Custody."

A $100 no-questions-asked REWARD will be provided to anyone to find and returns the binder intact.

To claim the $100 REWARD, if you have intact binder, leave a message for Attorney Stanley Charles Thorne on the CPR voicemail at 651-490-9277; or mail the binder anonymously to the CPR PO Box listed below, or bring it to the CPR office at 2868 Middle Street, Little Canada, MN 55117 (on Tues mornings only) and let us know where to send the reward.

ACTUAL COVER LOOKS LIKE THIS:

Thank You!

3-ring Binder Looks Like THIS:

Reward Provided by American Family Justice
Project

Center for Parental Responsibility
P.O. Box 130776
Roseville, MN 55113
T/M 651/490-9277
Website: cpr-mn.org
Email: info@cpr-mn.org
Non-profit 501(c)(3)